Rules and Regulations

Clarksburg Public Library.

- 1.—The Library is governed by the following officers, viz.:—President, Secretary Treasurer, Librarian and committee of ten.
- 2.—The annual meeting is held on the 2nd Monday in Jan'y each year, at which meeting the officers and committee are elected.
- 3.—Meetings of the Library Committee may be called by the President at any time; five members to form a quorum.
- 4.—Members pay a subscription fee of FIFTY CENTS per annum, which entitles two members of the family to receive books.
- 5.—The Library will be open to members on Wednesday afternoon and evening and Saturday afternoon and evening of each week.
- 6.—The rules as to the books are in the front of each book, and are to be strictly observed. They are as follows:—
 - I.—This book may be kept one or two weeks, and if not returned a fine of two cents for each day's detention is incurred, and if detained sixteen days after it should have been returned, the book is considered lost, and the borrower must pay for the volume, or the whole series if it forms part of a series.
 - II.—Members are requested to pay particular attention to keeping the books, clean, and not fold down the leaves or make pencil or ink marks upon them.
 - III.—If this book should be damaged by writing in it, defacing, or tearing out any of the leaves, injuring the cover, or doing anything to it which may render it unfit for general circulation, a fine is incurred of not less than ten cents, or not more than the value of the book or series.
 - IV.—Members in arrears are not allowed the use of the Library.
 - V.—No book will be allowed to be taken from the selves by any person but the Librarian, on any pretense whatever.
 - VI.—Books of GENERAL REFERENCE (Class A) are not allowed to be taken from the Library.
- Members are requested to leave with the Librarian a list of any books not in this catalogue which they wish to read. Such books will be purchased as soon as possible—when the book funds permit, if approved of by the Committee on Books.
